

TACTYC is an internationally recognised association with a worldwide membership.

Benefiting a wide range of Early Years professionals, membership of TACTYC is a must for those concerned with the education and care of young children.

What are the aims of TACTYC

TACTYC aims to promote the highest quality professional development for all UK early years educators in order to enhance the educational wellbeing of young children.

To do this, TACTYC engages in:

- ADVOCACY AND LOBBYING
Providing a voice for all those supporting the development of early years professionals;
- INFORMING
Disseminating knowledge about research, practice and policy;
- SUPPORTING
Facilitating reflection, informed discussion, evidence-based practice and research.

TACTYC has adopted equality, diversity and inclusion as core values.

What do we do?

Striving to achieve our aims, TACTYC ...

- Produces an international, refereed journal keeping members in touch with important issues in early childhood education, care and training;
- Disseminates topical information and research to members through newsletters and the website;
- Provides opportunities for debate and discussion through annual conferences, meetings and website;
- Lobbies relevant bodies and liaises with other professional groups.

What are the benefits of TACTYC membership?

TACTYC members receive the following:

- Opportunity to influence early childhood education and training;
- Full personal subscription to the Journal, Early Years, and student/unwaged rate;
- Newsletter three times a year;
- Reduced rates at TACTYC conferences;
- Voting rights at the AGM;
- Full access to the TACTYC Website www.tactyc.org.uk;
- Links with other early childhood professionals;
